

Speech about Love

Ladies and gentlemen,

Hi everyone!

Here we are gathered in this forum to discuss 'Love'. Yes, 'love'.

This reminds me, once a friend and admirer of my blogs. She was surprised how I would build a speech on the topic "love".

So, my friends! Here I am and I wish that friend of mine would be here among you listening to me.

Now I come to the main point, yes, 'love'!

I am afraid that now "Love" is supposed to be the attraction between two opposite sex. I hope you would agree with me. Go and surf the net you will find tons of material on this topic. Your toil will not be of much beneficial if you try to find "Love" in other relations.

Ladies and gentlemen, "LOVE" is the most talk about term since the time memorial – since the creation of mankind (Adam). It existed since then; rather I must say even before, when there was nothing but the Creator; even the creation of the universe is because of LOVE – love of the creator for the creation.

In the modern age there is also lot of talking about love, but I am afraid that now love is mostly supposed to result in sex and not beyond, whereas there are millions of couples who may not love each other, still they are married and increasing population.

Hmm, I am seeing smiles on some faces, maybe there is sarcasm in some eyes too. But what I am talking about is the bright fact, and every day's experience.

My friends, thinking of love with such a low value is not justified. If I am asked to define love, I would say "Sacrifice, Selflessness, not demanding, to submit to the will of beloved." This is the aspect which fulfills the instinct of mankind as regard to physical as well as spiritual. A mother is the most sacrificing person for her children. It may be said that it is in her instinct to love her children. Let's take 'true friendship', there is no compulsion, but sometimes friends do sacrifice for each other. There are people who love their fellow being without any blood relationship. God creates the blood relations, but to us the relations we make are important. This is the aspect of love. It prolongs only when it is based on selflessness otherwise parting is there – "Someone loved would leave you behind without love."

Thank you for being patient to listen to me, bye.
